Are You Lonely, Or Do You Just Like Solitude?

(By Jack Schirner)

The Covid pandemic had a significant impact on many, many people across the country. We were all relatively isolated for many months. The people still working had to choose between working from home (if it was possible), or taking a leave of absence, or worse, being laid off. Many small businesses closed forever, and their employees had to try to start all over again. School aged children suffered tremendously by losing much needed in-class instruction. Many are now several years behind where they should be. Some may never recover from that deficiency.

The impact on retired seniors was different. Many were confined to their houses for months, binge watching TV with very little social interaction except by phone. People across many generations (especially seniors) came out of the pandemic with a new aliment that continues to negatively impact their lives – they now suffer from chronic loneliness. Others came out of the mass-ordered shut down with a new appreciation for solitude, and now prefer to take walks in the woods or take long breaks from the hustle and bustle of our crazy new world. So where do you stand? Do you just yearn for occasional solitude, or do you find yourself increasingly lonelier?

Recent studies have revealed that nearly half of the adults in the US experience feelings of loneliness daily, even though not all of that was caused by Covid-19. Loneliness causes people to feel empty, alone, and unwanted. A new advisory issued by the US Surgeon General cites data from several studies that indicate loneliness can lead to an increased risk of anxiety, depression, stroke, heart disease, dementia, or even premature death. Loneliness is partially defined by feelings of isolation, even when surrounded by other people. The lonely person feels rejected or abandoned by other Manager: Saliha Raddini Driver/Sales: Robert Mesquita people. Solitude, on the other hand, is voluntary. Many people enjoy spending time by themselves but continue to maintain positive social relationships that they can return to when they crave connection. Loneliness is a state of mind resulting from wanting human contact but feeling alone. People can be alone and not feel lonely, or they can have contact with people and still experience feelings of isolation. Loneliness can be caused by physical isolation, such as when we were shuttered during Covid, or when they move to a new location, get a divorce, or experience the death of a significant person in their life.

For some, the rise of the internet and social media has led to fewer in-person interactions with close friends, which in turn has led to more loneliness. A person can have hundreds of "Facebook Friends" and still not be close with any of them. Yet having a few close friends is enough to ward off loneliness and reduce the negative health concerns associated with this state of mind. The more actual face-to-face contact you have with friends, the more you can boost your sense of well-being.

Your Senior Center plays a very important role in your physical and mental health. The Center provides great opportunities to meet new people and cultivate new friendships. You can join a group or start your own group with people who have similar interests as you. Volunteering is also an excellent way to stop feeling lonely. Volunteer opportunities are shown to ease stress, reduce feelings of depression, help make new friends, and connect with others, which can make you a happier person. Besides working to connect with others, don't overlook the potential power of exercise, healthy food, proper sleep, sunshine, and even meditation for fighting loneliness. You can find a long list of both volunteer opportunities and physical and social activities that exist, or could exist, at the Center. If you have a particular interest or hobby that you would like to share, or participate in, contact the administrative office today at (760) 728-4498. We are here for YOU.

Welcowe NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Please join us in welcoming the new board members to the Fallbrook Senior Center, as they bring their expertise and diverse backgrounds to serve our senior community.

Liduvina Favela (Lidu) is a highly accomplished professional with over 20 years of experience in public service and education. She has been the Assistant Superintendent of Business Services for the Ontario-Montclair School District. Lidu has been actively involved in her community, serving on the board of directors for various organizations, including the Inland Empire Economic Partnership and the California Latino School Boards Association. She holds a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in educational leadership from California State University, San Bernardino. Her experience in finance and education makes her a very valuable addition to our board. We are very grateful to have her.

Howard Salmon has a well-rounded background with a variety of healthcare companies, as CEO, Director, and Board of Directors. He comes to us with a Master of Health Administration from the University of Minnesota, a Lieutenant Commander of the United State Public Health Service, and a lifetime fellow with the American College of Healthcare Executives. He has served on the board of directors of the Fallbrook Regional Healthcare District. We are fortunate to have a director with the knowledge and experience of Mr. Salmon. Howard will serve as our Treasurer.

Tom Mintun's prior expertise lies primarily with toll road construction and nuclear power plant construction and operation, both as an Operations Manager and Systems Engineer. He also has experience in dealing with the County of San Diego operations. He has been president of the Friends of the Fallbrook Library for the last seven years. Tom has a Bachelor of Science degree from the United States Naval Academy, and a Master of Science from George Washington university. He is a professional Nuclear Engineer and a licensed commercial pilot. He will now also be the vice president of our board.

Dr. Mark Weaver is a respected clinical psychologist, executive coach, and organizational development specialist. Mark has been helping organizations grow over the past 25 years by blending best practices from psychology and brain science with business management techniques that work in today's marketplace. He is president of Deep CoachWorks and is an executive ADHD coach Mark's expertise and leadership have made him a sought-after speaker and consultant for organizations across multiple industries. We welcome his insights, his experience, and his enthusiasm to our board.

We are thrilled to announce an exciting collaboration between the Fallbrook Senior Center and The Fallbrook Community Center Summer Camp Kids! This summer, we are introducing a series of intergenerational activities that will bring together our older adults and enthusiastic young campers. Our program aims to foster meaningful connections and create lasting memories through a range of engaging experiences. Participants will embark on nature walks in the beautiful San Diego parks, where they can explore the wonders of the outdoors, appreciate the local wildlife, and enjoy the fresh air. To ensure everyone's comfort and convenience, transportation will be provided for these outings. Additionally, we are excited to introduce the popular sport of Pickleball, where seniors and kids can team up, learn from one another, and engage in friendly competition. We look forward to the fun and laughter that will fill our centers as generations come together to create a vibrant and inclusive community.

Please call the Senior Center office for more information 760-728-4498

A STORY WORTH TELLING

Writing a personal history can be beneficial in many ways. It allows us to reflect on our life experiences, and gain a deeper understanding of our own values, accomplishments and challenges. The act of writing can be therapeutic, offering a sense of closure, healing and empowerment. Ultimately, this process of writing offers a profound opportunity to celebrate our lives.

Call the Senior Center if interested in taking a class. 760.728.4498

General Membership Meeting

General Membership Meeting – April 13, 2023

The first general membership meeting of 2023 was called to order at 9:36 a.m. on April 13. 2023 by Board President Nickie Williams. The meeting began by reciting the Pledge of Allegiance, led by Secretary Jack Schirner.

President's Report:

President Williams introduced our new board members to the general members in attendance. They are: Liduvina Favela, Howard Salmon, Tom Mintun, Mark Weaver

Director's Report:

Executive Director Susie Gonsalves reported on the activities within the center during March. Her report is on-file and may be viewed by any member. Highlights of her report include:

- The Senior Center served a total of 1,611 meals in the month.
- We currently have 447 members
- Thrift Shop income for the month totaled $11,481.35.
- Susie announced that our 50th anniversary celebration will be held the week of May 13, 2024. Our next planning-meeting will be Thursday, May 18th at 10:00 a.m. The meetings are an hour long. All members interested in helping plan this momentous event are welcome to attend.
- Because of conflicts with various graduation ceremonies in May, our planned intergenerational Prom is being rescheduled to the fall.

Thrift Shop Expansion Project:

We briefly discussed plans currently underway to improve the appearance and space of the Thrift Shop. Drawings are being developed by Youngren Construction that will enable us to replace the storage containers currently being utilized behind the thrift shop and enclose the area into a single but separate building that will be adjacent to our existing structure.

SDSCF Assessment presentation:

Joe Gavin and Jerry Wray, from the San Diego Seniors Community Foundation (SDSCF) joined us to recap their recently completed Assessment of the Fallbrook Senior Center. The assessment outlined our strengths and weaknesses and will be instrumental in developing a business plan to help us grow over the next few decades. They relayed comments and criticisms received from the focus group discussions that they hosted over the last few months.

Their assessment provided three options for us to consider in determining our future direction. After reviewing the options, our board voted to increase our collaboration efforts with other non-profit organizations in town so that we may provide additional programs and activities, while at the same time exploring opportunities to expand our existing structure. We will not continue to explore moving to a new location or building a new structure at this time.

Our guests from SDSCF also spoke about the other Senior Centers in San Diego County that they are currently working with to enhance their ability to better cope with the expanding number of seniors expected over the next ten years. They also took questions from the members in attendance.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:00 a.m.
